GERMAN TROOPS TOLD TO HOLD UNTIL DEATH.

With the American Army in France. —Enormous numbers of German reserves have been dumped into the salient about Chateau-Thierry.

Here all lines extended during the past forty-eight hours have been consolidated and are now holding against terrific counter attacks which the enemy leaders have set in motion. All gains made since the enemy retreat began are still held.

Fresh replacements of German troops have appeared on the line here and the enemy is preparing to make a stiff stand instead of carrying out his planned retreat to the Vesle.

Despite the order issued by the crown prince, to hold to the death, the German rear guard has been forced to give way before Americans in many localities where gains were made. Counter attacks which the enemy made were all repulsed.

Prisoners taken along this front state that they had been given orders to hold their line or die fighting. The instructions were explicit and demanded that the Americans be held from making further gains, regardless of the cost in men.

Large units of Boches that have received these instructions and tried to hold or penetrate the American lines, have been wiped out or taken prisoner. Fighting is constant along this line now and fresh German units are located in great numbers. These troops are thrown into the fight and their resistance is increasing. They are making a desperate effort to hold or advance their lines.

To the Stay-at-Home.

(The volunteers at Camp Cody send the following verses to The Tribune with the request for publication.—Ed. Tribune.)

You say he can't stand the army,
The life is too rough for him;
Do you think he is any better
Than some other mother's Tom or Jim?
You raised him up like a girl;
He don't smoke or drink, is your brag;
If all the rest of the boys were like him,

What would become of our flag?
You say let the rough class do the fighting.

They are used to beans and stew;
I am glad I am classed with the roughnecks.
Who will fight for the red, white and blue.

You say his girl could not stand it,
To send him off with the rest;
Don't you think she'd be glad he enlisted

When she feels a German's hot breath on her breast?

Think of the women in Belgium,
Of the cruelties they had to bear;
Do you want the same thing to happen
To your innocent daughter so fair?

You can thank God that the stars in old Glory,
Are not blurred by that kind of stain;
Because there are ten million roughnecks.

That have red blood in their veins.
They go and drill in bad weather,
And come in with a grin on their face,
While your darling sits in the parlor,
And lets another man fight in his place.

Maybe we do smoke and gamble,
But we fight as our forefathers did,
So go warm the milk for his bottle,
Thank God we don't need your KID.

Heavy German Losses.

Paris.—According to a review of the military situation in L'Homme Libre, the newspaper owned by Premier Clemenceau, the German losses since March 21 are approaching 1,000,000 men.

Knowles-Jones.

Miss Jane Knowles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Knowles, of this city, and Mr. A. Corbin Jones, were quietly married Wednesday, July 3, 1918, at the Methodist parsonage in Omaha, Rev. Titus Lowe, officiating. They spent a few days visiting the groom's mother, Mrs. J. A. Jones, and his sister in Lincoln, before returning here.

The bride has lived here practically all her life and graduated from the McCook high school with the Class of 1915. For the past three years she has been working in the office of the superintendent of the city schools as stenographer and keeping the records of the schools, which position she has filled very satisfactorily and expects to continue in that capacity until her husband returns from the war.

The groom came here about a year ago to take the place of Donald Jeffries, who resigned to go into business for himself as a traveling salesman for M. E. Smith & Co., a wholesale dry goods firm, and has made many friends here since then. He was born in "old Virginia" and is proud of it. He enlisted about two weeks ago in Chicago and was assigned to the navy medical corps, and has just been ordered to report for duty at the Great Lakes training station, for which place he will leave Monday.

The best wishes and congratulations of a host of friends are extended to the happy young couple for a long and happy life.—McCook Republican.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors and all who aided us during the sickness and death of our husband and father, also for the floral offerings.

MRS. M. J. MURRAY and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brosius and children of Stapleton were guests of Mrs. Brosius' mother Mrs. Margaret Christ this week.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.
Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a North Platte resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

August Ackermann, retired farmer, 620 E. Fourth St., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and other kidney trouble and they soon rid me of the pains and aches. I believe they are the best kidney medicine to be had. It has been over three years now since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and my health has been splendid. And not a symptom of kidney trouble has bothered me."

Almost six years later, Mr. Ackermann said: "Kidney trouble which I had recommended Doan's highly for having permanently rid me of the suffering I endured several years ago."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ackermann had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GERMAN PEOPLE SOFT-SOAPED BY THE MILITARY EXPERTS.

The German public is being told by the German military experts that the French and American "ambitious attempt to break through," which, in Baron von Ardenne's words "might have caused a decisive change in the military situation on the west front," has failed because of the famous German system of an elastic defense.

Significant is Baron von Ardenne's admission that Chateau Thierry and Soissons were the two cornerstones of the German defense and that the former has been lost to the foe, "who was aided by not inconsiderable American auxiliary forces."

The Wolff bureau's correspondent at the front does not fail to dwell on the "excessively severe" losses suffered by the Americans. These losses, he says, were due to the Americans being mixed for the first time with "savages" and "niggers" instead of with white French troops as heretofore. He says at many points "mountains of American dead lie in front of our positions."
